

Drama Class Top 20 "Must Haves" List

1. Cd player
2. CDs (I suggest purchasing some music with no lyrics. My favorites are classical and movie soundtracks.)
3. Stools (2 to 4)
4. Wooden Boxes (4 to 6) great for scene work
5. Rug (if classroom isn't carpeted)
6. Posters of Broadway musicals and plays (posted on walls around the classroom)
7. Large box of sound effects (small drum, bell, whistle, rain stick, vibra-slap, flexetone, child's zylophone, etc.)
8. Masks (I placed them on the upper part of the walls of my classroom)
9. Large box of various costume pieces (hats, gloves, cape, towel, wigs)
10. A reading corner with books about theatre, acting, scripts
11. Rubber ball (medium size)
12. Large box of props (cane, rubber chicken, baby doll, mixing bowl, wooden spoon, material of various sizes and colors)
13. Handbills from plays and musicals (posted on walls)
14. DVDs of school appropriate musicals and plays
15. Theatre textbooks (?) if you think you'll need them from time to time
16. Arts materials (construction paper, glue, scissors, magic markers, crayons, etc.)

17. Posters of Classroom Expectations

18. Board games (Mad Gab, Scattegories, I Want to Be a Broadway Star)

19. TV and VCR

20. Whiteboard